

VETS Employers Index<sup>SM</sup>

As of June 30, 2023

The VETS Employers Index<sup>SM</sup>, designed by VETS Indexes LLC, measures the performance of those publicly traded companies that recruit, develop, and support U.S. military veteran employees. Companies are selected from a VETS eligible universe of companies maintained by VETS Indexes LLC and populated based on VETS Indexes survey data and analysis. The VETS eligible universe leverages various selection criteria, such as company culture, policies, and reservist accommodations, to identify companies that are most supportive of military veterans, service members and their families.

All reported performance returns are total returns that reflect the reinvestment of dividends and capital gains. The Index changed from annual to quarterly rebalancing September 2018.

The S&P 500 Index is an unmanaged index of 500 stocks and sets forth the performance of a broad-based stock market index.

The VETS Employers Index<sup>SM</sup> ("Index") is based on a methodology designed by VETS Indexes LLC and is Powered by Wilshire. Wilshire calculates and distributes the Index based on the third-party supplied methodology. Wilshire makes no representations about the intended purpose or the methodology used to construct the Index. It is not possible to invest directly in an index. Exposure to an asset class represented by an index may be available through investable instruments derived from that index. Wilshire makes no representations regarding the advisability of investing in investment products based on the Index, which is not sponsored, endorsed, sold or promoted by Wilshire. Index returns do not reflect payment of certain sales charges or fees an investor may pay to purchase the securities underlying the Index or investment vehicles intended to track the performance of the Index. The imposition of these fees and charges would cause actual performance of the securities/vehicles to be lower than the Index performance shown. Inclusion of a company in the Index does not in any way reflect an opinion of Wilshire on the investment merits of the company.
